Conditions of Extended Warranty:

1. The coil model number is covered by an extended warranty promotion
2. The coil serial number is registered on-line at www.adpwarranty.com
3. The unit is installed in a single family residence
4. The unit is properly registered within 90 days after the original installation date. In the case of newly constructed homes, the original installation date is the date the homeowner purchased the home from the builder (proof of original installation date may be required)
5. The extended warranty applies only to the homeowner who purchased the product and is non-transferable
6. Effective for evaporator coils purchased on or after January 26, 2009

Installation manual

Your evaporator coil may qualify for an Extended Warranty if registered within 90 days of installation. For product registration and more information please visit:
